TATTOO

FREE when you book any of our weekend packages with tickets for the Saturday performance of the Tattoo at 10.30pm

Discover the fascinating history of Edinburgh's Royal Mile on this free walking tour. Starting at Holyrood Palace at the very foot of the Royal Mile, your knowledgeable guide will lead you up the length of this historic street. You will pass the fascinating and modern Scottish Parliament building; historic Canongate Kirk; the Mercat Cross and Parliament Square; magnificent St Giles Cathedral and finally Castlehill at the very top of the Mile. Along the way, you will hear stories of murders, disease, crime and ghosts...and get a real sense of how it was to live and work here hundreds of years ago. You will also get some tips on the best places to have a wee dram or bite to eat on or around the Royal Mile.

The tour starts at 8pm outside Holyrood Palace and finishes at 9.30pm at the entrance queue for the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo.
